Congress trusted Pakistan, Hurriyat as Kashmir burned: PM

IN THE CHAIR : HON'BLE SPEAKER

AGENCIES

NEW DELHI: Prime Minister Narendra Modi today went hammer and tongs against Congress accusing them of trusting Pakistan and Hurriyat Conference even as Kashmir went up in flames due to cross-border terrorism.

Replying to the debate in the Lok Sabha on the no-confidence motion, PM Modi said that the Congress regime put their faith in faith in those who proudly waved the Pakistani flag in their hands, instead of the Indian Armed Forces even as Kashmir bore the brunt of cross-border terrorism supported and sponsored by the neighbouring country.

Kashmir was burning due to terrorism. Congress didn't trust the people of Kashmir, but they trusted Hurriyat, separatists, and those who used to carry Pakistan's flag. India conducted surgical strike on terror, they didn't trust the Indian Army," PM Modi said.

Hitting out at the Congress, Modi said India carried out the surgical and air strikes but the grand old party raised questions on the capability of our armed forces.

The surgical strikes on September 28, 2016, were in response to an attack by Pakistan-based terrorists on an army base in Kashmir's Uri on September 18 in which 19 soldiers were killed.

Modi said Congress loved to tarnish India's image and amplify it in the country. "They don't believe in India's people and their capabilities, but I want to tell them that the level of no-confidence among people towards Congress is high", he said.

Prime Minister took a jibe at opposition parties, terming the no-confidence motion against his government as a blessing in disguise. PM Modi said that no-confidence motions have always proved "lucky" for the BJP and the NDA, who will come back with a grand victory, breaking all previous records in the 2024 Lok Sabha polls.

"In a way, Opposition's No Confidence has always been lucky for us. Today, I can see that you (Opposition) have decided that NDA and BJP will come back in the 2024 elections with a
